Transfer of Copyright

For the mutual benefit and protection of Author(s) and the Diabetes Technology Society (hereinafter "Publisher") it is necessary that Author provides formal written TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT before the publication of Author's Work.

PUBLISHER SHALL NOT CONSIDER THE WORK UNTIL AND UNLESS THIS DOCUMENT IS EXECUTED BY THE AUTHOR

This signed document ensures that Publisher has the Author's permission to publish the Work. As used herein the term "Work" shall be the manuscript listed below under the heading of "Title of Work." Author contemplates one or more Authors.

Title of Work: _____

Terms and Conditions

1. The Author, in consideration of the acceptance of the above Work for publication, does hereby assign and transfer to Publisher all of the rights and interest in and to the copyright of the above-titled Work in its current form and in any form subsequently revised for publication and/or electronic dissemination. Author agrees that, in any future published work by Author that concerns the same data reported in the Work, Author will reference the Work published by Publisher.
2. The Author and Publisher hereby agree to comply with the terms of the NIH Public Access Policy for NIH-funded manuscripts. Upon acceptance for publication, the peer-reviewed manuscript will be submitted to NIH in accordance with Division G, Title II, Section 218 of PL 110-161 (Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2008) and as agreed to by the parties.
3. The Author hereby affirms that (i) the Work and every part of said Work is original with the author(s) (ii) there are no other authors of the Work or elements of the Work (iii) the Work has not been published previously (iv) the Work is not under consideration for publication elsewhere and (v) any necessary permission to use elements from another source has been obtained. Further Author represents and warrants that the Work in whole or in part does not to its knowledge violate the copyrights, other intellectual property rights, contractual rights, or rights of privacy of any third parties and that the Work does not contain information that may be deemed confidential by any third party.
4. Author hereby agrees to indemnify and hold Publisher, its directors, officers, employees, agents and affiliates (collectively "Publisher") harmless from and against any and all losses, liabilities, damages and expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) which Publisher may incur or be obligated to pay in any action, claim or proceeding against them or any of them, for breach of any representation and warranty set forth in paragraph above.
5. Author understands and acknowledges that Publisher is under no obligation whatsoever to remunerate Author for any use or publication of the Work by Publisher or licensees or permitted users of the Work or to publish or use said Work.

6. Each Author must sign his or her name and provide the date of signature below. If copyright is held by the employer, the employer or an authorized representative of the employer must sign in addition to the Author. If an Author is a United States Federal Government employee, whose work falls within the public domain, and this work was created in that capacity, the copyright transfer applies only to the extent allowed by US law and the Author should sign this form. Please confirm by checking the box following the signature line. Any other Author who is not a Federal employee must also sign the copyright transfer form.

I agree to the above terms and conditions:
